

KICKOFF SEMINAR VU NEXUS CENTRE IMPACT OF BEPS ON TAX TREATIES 19 OCTOBER 2017

On 19 October 2017, we will celebrate the launch of the VU Nexus Centre for multinational taxation with a seminar on the impact of BEPS on tax treaties, especially the Multilateral Instrument (MLI) and the 2017 update to the OECD Model. You are kindly invited to join the seminar.

- > Date: 19 October 2017, 13.30-18.00 (followed by drinks reception). Registration as of 13.00.
- > Location: Symphony Offices, Gustav Mahlerplein 3, Amsterdam (directions)

The seminar is aimed at a broad audience of academics, tax practitioners (both in the public and private sector), government officials, national and international tax policy makers, and students.

About the VU Nexus Centre

The VU Nexus Centre is the recently established international research centre of the Tax Law department of the Faculty of Law at the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam (Free University of Amsterdam). The purpose of the Centre is to initiate and carry out scientific research on the taxation of multinational enterprises in a globalizing environment, with a particular focus on the taxation of non-resident multinational enterprises. Key areas of research are domestic and international tax law, including tax treaties and EU tax law.

Click here for more information about the VU Nexus Centre

Follow us on LinkedIn

Agenda

The (English language) seminar will focus on the following themes:

- > MLI implementation: current state of play
M. Evers, LL.M (OECD)
- > Anti-hybrid mismatch rules
M.C. de Graaf, LL.M (Dutch tax authorities, VU Nexus Centre)
- > Dual resident entities
prof. G. Maisto (Università Cattolica di Piacenza; Maisto e Associati)
- > Anti-abuse measures
prof. A. Rust (WU Vienna)
- > Avoidance of PE status and 2017 update OECD Model
prof. A.A. Skaar (University of Oslo)

Other speakers: prof. J.W. Bellingwout (VU Nexus Centre; KPMG Meijburg & Co); prof. F.P.G. Pötgens (VU Nexus Centre; De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek), dr. R.A. Bosman (VU Nexus Centre; Loyens & Loeff)

Register

Click here to register. The participation fee is €100. University students can attend free of charge.

This seminar is eligible for 4 NOB points.

VU Nexus
Centre

Centre for Multinational Taxation